

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: On behalf of the 113,000 Residents, the City of Miami Gardens is honored to recognize the week of January 23rd to January 29th as National CRNA Week, to acknowledge the importance of Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetists (CRNAs) and their role in providing high-quality care for all; and

WHEREAS: CRNAs are advanced practice registered nurses. Providing anesthesia to patients in the United States for more than 150 years. They are among the nation's most important professionals; and

WHEREAS: CRNAs are primary anesthesia providers in rural communities and continue to be the primary providers of anesthesia care to U.S. military personnel. CRNAs practice in every setting in which anesthesia is delivered—from traditional hospital surgical suites and obstetrical delivery rooms to critical access hospitals, ambulatory surgical centers, the offices of dentists, podiatrists, ophthalmologists, pain managements specialists, and more; and

WHEREAS: CRNAs are trusted anesthesia experts, caring for patients safely and compassionately, delivering specialized, cost-effective care to patients as young as newborns to seniors. They also leave their homes and families to travel to hospitals and facilities across the country, so they can assist wherever they are needed most; and

WHEREAS: CRNAs have been courageously serving on the frontlines of the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, using their advanced skills in airway management, intubation, and ventilator management to care for the sickest of patients. We honor them, and greatly appreciate their past and continued service to communities across the United States; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rodney Harris, Mayor of the City of Miami Gardens along with my colleagues of the City Council: Vice Mayor Reginald Leon, Shannon Campbell, Shannan Ighodaro, Katrina Wilson, Linda Julien, and Robert Stephens III, do hereby proclaim in the City of Miami Gardens this week of January 23rd to January 29th:

NATIONAL CRNA WEEK

Signed and the official seal of the City of Miami Gardens, Florida, affixed hereto this 23rd day of January 2022.

Rodney Harris, Mayor
